Profession serving staff
This additional fee is for having professional staff present on the day to serve your food. This is a great feature that means you can focus on enjoying the day and the staff will be on hand to answer any questions and look after your guest. This is a popular choice for many, as we will do the hard work for you portion control and food served with Flygerian love and good vibes. This service will cost £280 and include your chaffing trays.

Food warming chaffing trays
This will ensure your chosen food items are at the perfect temperature for your guest to enjoy your food.
